As an institutional supporter of this initiative, we are proud to promote events that foster academic discussion, professional development, and international collaboration in the field of insolvency law.

This symposium will bring together leading practitioners and scholars to discuss one of the most relevant and evolving topics in corporate restructuring and insolvency.

August 12

8:30 AM – 12:00 PM

Lucarena Auditorium, PUC-SP, São Paulo, Brazil

We congratulate S3 Society on this important initiative and encourage our readers, contributors, and members to follow the event and participate.

We look forward to seeing you there!
